

California Network of Child Advocacy Centers, In partnership with:
Western Regional Children's Advocacy Center

PRESENT:

"I Am Here to Help . . . Who Am I Helping???: The Varied Functions of a Victim Advocate in the CAC/MDT Setting"

WHO SHOULD ATTEND:

Victim Advocates that are team members of a Child Advocacy Center or Multidisciplinary Team; Directors and Coordinators of Child Advocacy Centers and Multidisciplinary Teams

Training Objectives:

- Participants will gain a deeper understanding of the significance and complexities of the Family Advocate role in the CAC setting.
Directors, program managers and supervisors will gain insights into ways to build or strengthen the Family Advocate component of their CAC.

September 28, 2010
9:00am - 4:00pm
Sierra Health Foundation
1321 Garden Highway
Sacramento, CA 95833
Registration form also available online at: www.cncac.org

FACILITATORS:

Pam Karalunas, Chapter Coordinator, Alaska Children's Alliance - Pam Karalunas has worked in the field of child sexual abuse for over 24 years, 17 of those providing coordination, counseling, information, education & support services to non-offending parents in families where child sexual abuse had occurred.
Nicole Farrell, MSW - Co-Coordinator, California Network of Child Advocacy Centers - Nicole Farrell has worked within a multidisciplinary intervention and investigative context both as a Child Interview Specialist and mental health treatment provider for over 13 years.

Registration fee: $20 ($15 for CNCAC Members) Lunch and materials provided for all attendees

Registration Form (pre-registration is required).
Name:
Title:
Agency:
Address:
City, State, Zip:
Phone: Fax:
Email:

Registration Deadline: September 17th
Please make checks payable to: CNCAC
Mail this form with payment to: CNCAC
P.O. Box 791
Cool, CA 95614
questions or more information, please contact Jan Dunn at calmdic@comcast.net or (530) 889-2192

Vegetarian lunch requested